ASD News

AGM

The minutes of the AGM are now available to read online; find them here

Training for 2016

Is there something you'd really like to learn this year?
We're compiling the 2016 training schedule, if you'd like to get involved, get in touch.

PLASA Glasgow

It was brilliant to meet so many members in Glasgow a few weeks ago.
PLASA Leeds is happening in May, It would be great to see you there.

Behind the Scenes Charity

The Charity has organised a day of golfing, find out more and register your team here.

Hardware, software & sounds news

Klang in ear monitoring solutions.

Here's a product we played with at PLASA. Designed to be a way of organising your in-ear mix, it could also have interesting applications for installations using wireless headphones.

It's controlled via an app, find out more.

d&b DS10 Audio Network Bridge

This provides 16 AES3 output channels via Dante, through Ethernet, four AES3 input channels and an integrated 5 port network switch.

DPA 4060 Mounts

DPA showcased some new mic mounts at NAMM, this is a mic stand adapter, see more here

Radial Dante enabled direct box

This useful little box allows you to output audio from a Dante network to a stereo system. There is also a TX version that allows you to connect line level instruments, read about them here

Apple releases Music Memos and live loops app for Garage Band

Apple have released an app that will allow you to quickly record and then manipulate the recordings simply via your handheld device. This video explains the new features.

Interesting Reading

Ambisonics

John Leonard has written a primer article for A Sound effect. Read it here

Mixing Tutorials

Not strictly reading, more watching, but the Pro Audio Files website has compiled a list of 35 mixing tutorials they think we should see. Decide whether you agree, here.
